Rocks

November 11 - We've got cold winter weather now. Guess the farmers can butcher hogs after being blessed with nice rains.

Herman Richardson killed a turkey on Tuesday.

Samuel Martin left Wednesday for the Burley tobacco market in Johnson City, Tennessee.

The Rocks Club had its Christmas party with Mrs. Joan Ranson. Gifts were exchanged and everyone had a wonderful time. 18 people were present.

Melvin Garrett moved to his room at the hospital on Friday. A speedy recovery is wished him.

Rev. A. M. Taylor will conduct the morning devotions over WTTX December 18 - 22 at 8:45.

The Mildred Collins Sunday School Class had their Christmas dinner Saturday night at the church.

The BYW's and WMU ladies went to Keysville Nursing Home Monday for the Christmas program.

Business meeting at 7 p.m. on Wednesday night.

Mrs. Margaret Marshall will go back to the doctor for a check-up this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Garrett celebrated their 29th wedding anniversary December 10. May they have many more.

The Adult Ladies Class will meet with Rachel Ranson on Thursday at 1:30 p.m. to have their class meeting and Christmas party.

The active deacons and their wives supper will be at the church Thursday night at 6:30 p.m.

The choir at Rocks Church will present a cantata, "From The Star To The Cross," Sunday, December 17 at 7 p.m. Plan to attend and celebrate the Lord's birth in song.

Several in this area are sick with colds and sore throat. Hope they soon will be well.

The children of Rocks will have their Christmas program at the church December 20th at 7:00 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Martin and boys have moved in their new home.

Those that are going Christmas caroling are to be at the church December 18 at 7 p.m.

A Christmas Candelight Service will be at Rocks December 24 at 4 p.m.

A watch night service will be at Rocks beginning at 8 p.m. December 31.

Here's wishing the editor and his staff a very Merry Christmas and all the Times-Virginian readers along with a Happy New Year.
